Burley Sumner Burgett was born in 1891 on a farm in Douglas County. His parents were Wilson Burgett and Kate Brown. After high school, he attended Valporaso Business College. Upon graduation, he returned to the farm and in 1913 married a school teacher from Murdock, Orpha Catherine Layton. They had four children: Lois (Warnes), William, Gladys (Barthell) and Joanne (Miller). In 1938 Burley left farming to run for public office. He was elected County Clerk of Douglas County where he served until 1958.
