SPARKS IN THE PARK

Play along with our townwide scavenger hunt! Locate the star marker and check location off on your card!

I have hands that don't wave and a face that doesn't frown, I don't walk but I move around.

1 point, 2 points or maybe even a 3? Find this spot and your closer to victory.

When you need a large space for a gathering or a show. Head over here and look high and low.

I have a million stories, and you can chose what to learn about, one main rule to follow is you must not shout.

Heroes work here and are ready to get their sirens going. They will also usually need lots of water flowing.

If you are scared or see something strange give these folks a call. They are sure to keep us all safe both big and small.

Once you compelte your card, post to the Sparks in the Park event page! We will randomly choose winners!
